

The owner of Sinclair Broadcasting must not be allowed to force its stations to air an anti-Kerry "documentary" days before the election.

I believe this program is not "news", but is just another smear campaign against John Kerry, a man who represents courage and integrity for many Americans.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I do not believe this program is not in the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
